The stories of people

The story of Nora

Nora is 21 years old girl from Taroudant city. She belongs to a medium family. She is the oldest daughter among her three brothers. She came to Agadir to try to work even though her family offered her all what she needs. Her father was working as a farmer. But the bad company took her out of the right path. She stayed at first with her uncle in Agadir. So, her family didn't worry since she will stay with the uncle; but she soon moved to a rent chamber. In fact she didn't come for work but she wanted to enjoy and have fun without taking in consideration the consequences. After some months she becomes pregnant from unknown man. Nora finds herself confused in a big trouble. Now, she is a mother of a baby in his fifth month. She came to Ahddane association in a miserable situation. She told us that she doesn't want to work in prostitution anymore; she wants only to take care of her baby and wishes to go back to the warmth arms of her family with her baby. After listening to her, we find that she is in bad need of a help psychologically and financially.

Three children without any identity documents!!!

Sofyan is 19 years old has one brother and one sister; Abedsamad is 21 years and Ibtissam is 13 years. Their parents have been married in the traditional way without any marriage act. Now, the parents are separated and the result is no declared children. The poor children can't continue their studies and no one wants to offer them a job. So, the president called their father many times and he finally respond and come. The president is truing with him to find a solution to register his children and promised to pay all the expenses.
