The stories of people The story of Saadiya

Saadiya is a young girl. She came to Agadir at the age of 15 because her family was poor and she wanted to work to help them, but she was surprised by the hard environment after failing to find a job. Saadiya was obliged to gain money and since she was a minor she has been used by other girls who were practicing prostitution. All this affected her life badly. She lost her virginity for the money and she felt sin towards her family whom gave her their full trust. The destiny brought Ahmed to Saadiya's life who loved her even though he knew her story. He took her to his family's house but his father didn't appreciate the idea, but she stayed with them until she gave birth to her first daughter Hiba. Ahmed has done all what he could to marry her, but it wasn't possible because Saadiya didn't attain the legal age of marriage. They had no solution than patience and staying in the house of Ahmed parents, despite of the problems because Ahmed also belonging to a poor family. After one year, Saadiya gave birth to a second child but none of them was declared. Therefore, they came to Ahddane association to register her kids. After many trials, we came to confirm their marriage and then register her children. Their story was very complicated and took a lot of time, money and energy. The president visited and reconciled them after being separated. She also found some solutions like renting a chamber with the family and they have benefited from a lot of support from Ahddane including furniture, clothes and food and many small details for their living.

The story of Hafida: The baby sitter

Hafida is a well known baby sitter in the area of Dcheira. She is practicing the job but without any legal document. Ahddane 'association has received many complaints from the mothers in the area, because the children are exposed to all kinds of violence by this babysitter. When the president get informed about this, she called the authorities to send for this baby sitter to come to Ahddane in order to find a solution. Therefore, we come up to many agreements such as the training of this woman for a period of a month in Oum El Banine association. This training aims to teach her how to behave with children of different ages, taking in consideration that this needs an experience in the field. Now, we are keeping our eyes on her and help her also with clothes, food, milk, medications...etc. In turn, she promised to send us all the single mothers whose children aren't yet declared.

The story of Sfiya

Sfiya is a single mother. She has two daughters who are suffering from Autism. Sfiya started working as a house maid to support her daughters, but one day she had an accident. She couldn't work with the hard house works anymore, but she didn't give up. She bought a millstone to grind almonds with oil, or to make Argan oil and sell it. Now, she came to ask for help because this millstone which is the only resource of her living has been broken. We buy her a new one to continue her small project. So, it seems that Ahddane association has help creating two projects this year: Hamid's project and Sfiya's project.
