

The monthly report of November

Oum El Banine

The visits of the month

The visit of Jennie and Karim

Miss. Jennie Silis and Mr.Karim visited the association as they used to do each year. They have brought a lot of things they have been collecting for children and women as well.

The visit of the Swedish association “Karavanen”

After their visit last year, the association Karavanen has been working to send a container by ship to the association that will contain materials, clothes, furniture, wheelchairs, bicycles, sewing machines...etc. This container was supposed to arrive to Agadir on November 2016 this why some members of Karavanen came to help with it. But the container stills in the port of Agadir until today waiting for the permission from the authorities to take it out. However, the Karavanen members visited and bring many other things for the association even though the aim of the visit was to help with the container.

The visit of Mme. ANNA from Humanisthjalpen

Mme. Anna who is a member in the board of the Humanist Foundation “Humanisthjalpen” came for the first time to the association Oum El Banine. Her visit was a very honored and important visit because the Humanist Foundation is the only and faithful donor of our humanitarian project during many years. She came with Mr. Lars hector who is also a member in this foundation.

The Karavanen and Mme. Anna visiting the women house

Foreigner students having interviews with Mme. Mahjouba

Many foreigner students came to the association to collect information for their researches about the project of single mothers and their children.

The birthday of Mme.Mahjouba

The visit of Mme.Anna, Mr. Lars hector and friends coincided the birthday of the president of the association Mme. Mahjouba. Even though, the president didn't have time to celebrate her birthday but the Swedish visitors remembered her birthday.
